CITY ANNOUNCES WINNERS OF 16TH ANNUAL PHOTO CONTEST

Eight winners have been selected from over 100 photos submitted in the City of Vacaville's 16th annual Photo Contest.

"I was impressed with the quality and quantity of photos submitted by our residents," said Shannon Nelson, coordinator of the contest. "The judges had a difficult time selecting the top photos from the numerous entries we received."

In the Adult Black and White category, Jesus Sanchez's image of the Vacaville Chamber of Commerce building titled "The Public Library" took top honors, while Michael Newman picked up second place for his somber shot of the hills of Vacaville titled "Life and Death on the Hill."

The photos can be seen on Channel 26 or on the City's website at www.cityofvacaville.com. They will also be placed on display in City Hall.

Winners will be honored at a future City Council meeting.
