CITY ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

The Vacaville City Council is accepting applications from citizens interested in serving on the Housing and Redevelopment Commission. The commission is an advisory group to the City Council. The current vacancy must be filled by a resident within the City's two Redevelopment or Community Development Block Grant areas and will expire on March 31, 2009, with the possibility for reappointment for a two-year term.

Applications are available on-line at www.cityofvacaville.com or from the Clerk's Office, City Hall, 650 Merchant Street, Vacaville. An application is attached. For more information, call Michelle Thornbrugh or Carol Yount at 707-449-5100.

Applications will be accepted through December 22, 2008.

The Housing and Redevelopment Commission reviews the City's efforts to purchase and rehabilitate aging or blighted properties, focusing on methods to expand the City's supply of affordable housing and enhancing the City's economic vitality. The Commission is composed of residents, landowners, business people, and members of organizations within the City's redevelopment areas. The group meets once a month and receives a monthly $40 stipend.
