GRAND OPENING OF THE REBUILT GREAT WONDERS PLAYGROUND

After 15 years of heavy use, the much-loved, but well-worn Great Wonders Playground has been rebuilt with the help of nearly 1,000 volunteers. Now, to celebrate that community effort, a grand opening celebration has been scheduled for 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 25, 2008 at the playground in Andrews Park.

A brief ceremony, including a few words from Mayor Len Augustine, Assistant City Manager Laura Kuhn, and Rotary President Joe Niccoli, will kick off the fun. A couple of special guests will also be on hand to help celebrate the arrival of the new Great Wonders as well. This will definitely be a kid-friendly event.

The playground, made from recycled plastic material, maintains the original's castle theme, but includes new features such as a fairy carriage, pirate ship, and queen and king's thrones. Always popular, swings have also been brought back. The trademark dragon statue from the old playground will still preside over the entrance to the new one.

Information can be found on the City website at cityofvacaville.com and on Channel 26. For information on the rebuilding of the Great Wonders playground, visit www.rebuildthewonder.com.
