VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Youth4Youth Program

In this program, high school volunteers are matched with elementary school students. Volunteers provide one-to-one mentoring through a variety of exercises and activities (including games, art projects, and homework help). A Big Brothers Big Sisters staff is always on-site to provide guidance and support for the mentors.

Youth4Youth Program meets once a week at each designated school or youth center site. In addition, Big Brothers Big Sisters asks for a one-year commitment from all volunteers.

Time: 3:30-5:30 pm, one time per week

Day & Location: Mondays – Markham Elementary, Vacaville
Tuesdays – Wardlaw Elementary, Vallejo
Wednesdays – Fairview Elementary, Fairfield
Thursdays – Fairview Elementary, Fairfield
Day TBD – Travis Air Force Base Youth Center, Fairfield

* Please note that program days may change for Fall 2009.

General Information

- Youth4Youth Program is opened to high school students in their freshman, sophomore, or junior year.
- The program offers high school students the opportunity to help younger students, while also developing leadership skills, serving as a positive role model, earning community service hours, and enhancing their resumes and college applications.
