DOG OBEDIENCE CLASSES NOW AVAILABLE AT CITY HALL PARK

Because a well-trained dog is a happy dog, the City of Vacaville's Community Services Department will be offering Dog Training classes beginning in March.

Dog trainer Susan Sakala will be teaching the class, designed for dogs four months and older, at City Hall Park, 650 Merchant St., Vacaville.

The eight-week beginning level class will be held from 10-11 a.m. on Saturday, March 7 and continue through Saturday, May 2. Class will not be held on April 18.

The course is designed to teach the three basic skills of obedience: heel, stay and recall. Participants also learn about canine behaviors and how to interpret them in relation to training and effectively controlling their dog.

Space is limited and the registration deadline is Friday, March 6. Individuals can sign up and pay the $51 class fee at the McBride Center, Three Oaks Community Center, and the Ulatis Community Center.

For more information, call 449-5631.
