POLICE IDENTIFY SUSPECTS IN VACAVILLE WAL-MART STORE THEFT

Vacaville police have made an arrest of one suspect and have identified another suspect in the theft of a large amount of cash last April from the Vacaville Wal-Mart store.

Vacaville police learned of the theft of the money on April 26, 2010. Based on the nature of the crime and the way it was carried out, investigators believed that a store employee either committed the crime or took part in the theft. An internal investigation was conducted by Wal-Mart and a criminal investigation was started by the Vacaville Police Department.

Detectives from the City's Investigative Services Section identified Latoya Carr, 37, of Fairfield as the store employee who had helped steal the cash. Carr was a Customer Service Manager at the Wal-Mart. Hasani Carr, 28, of Modesto and a relative of Latoya Carr was subsequently identified as the subject who entered the store and stole the money.

On July 15, 2010, a search warrant was served at Latoya Carr's home in Fairfield. Several items were seized during the search and Latoya Carr was arrested for burglary and conspiracy.
