NEW YEAR, NEW CAREER WORKSHOP – INTERVIEWING SKILLS TO GET THE JOB!

Are you having trouble getting the job you really want? If so, invest in your future by learning interviewing skills to make you stand out above the others. A “New Year, New Career” workshop will improve your interviewing skills through self-discovery and an exploration of thought-provoking questions.

Participants will learn 20 core questions to help answer a variety of interview questions, as well as learn about different types of interviews and the approaches to succeed in each situation.

The City of Vacaville’s Community Services Department is sponsoring these new workshops at the McBride Center on Saturday, February 6 and March 13, from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m. The fee for the four-hour course is $45. Space is limited and registration deadlines are the Friday before each class. Individuals can sign up and pay the $45 class fee at the McBride Center, Three Oaks Community Center, and the Ulatis Community Center.

For more information, call 449-5631.
