CRAZY KABOBS HIGHLIGHT VACAVILLE'S KID'S CULINARY ACADEMY Teens get a turn with Tortilla Temptations the following week

The City of Vacaville's Community Services Department is 'cooking' up more fun! On Saturday, August 11 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., the Kid's Culinary Academy will be making "Crazy Kabobs." This class will highlight hands-on food preparation and nutrition.

The newest class in the Academy series, Crazy Kabobs will teach budding young chefs in grades 4 – 6 how to assemble traditional and non-traditional shish kabobs. Participants will also barbeque their kabobs and whip up some tasty dipping sauces.

On Saturday, August 18, teens get their turn at cooking with Tortilla Temptations. Discover a culture through its cuisine and give your taste buds a treat. Make tortillas, assemble your own special burrito and also make pico de gallo and guacamole. This class is open to grades 6 – 9.

Each class has a $40 registration fee that covers instruction from Chefs Gus Alevras and Shirley Tytler, food, and recipes for their Kid's Culinary Academy cookbook. The Academy will be held from 9 a.m – 1 p.m. at the McBride Center, 91 Town Square Place. These classes fill up fast, so register now at any Community Center or visit the website, www.cityofvacaville.com. Call 469-6674 for more information.
