READ, DISCUSS AND DISCOVER

Experience a ‘novel’ way to meet friends. This new program, “Teen Book Club”, is being offered through the City of Vacaville’s Community Services Department. This month’s Book Club will allow teens, 12 to 18 years old, to escape to the world of mystery and suspense through the thrilling novel, “And Then There Were None” by Agatha Christie. Discussions will be held on five consecutive Wednesdays beginning October 3rd at the Vaca Pena Recreation Center (PrimeTime building) on the Vaca Pena Middle School campus, 200 Keith Way. The cost for this class is $10 for the four week session and registration can be completed at any of the city’s Community Centers or on-line www.cityofvacaville.com. Participants in the Book Club are invited to a hosted reception at the McBride Center on Sunday, November 18th from 3 – 5 pm. For more information call 469-6674.

KID'S CULINARY ACADEMY COOKS UP CREEPY, CRAWLY TREATS

Kids return to the kitchen at McBride to whip up those slimy, gross but eatable treats that only a kid can love. This popular hands-on class will be held on Saturday, October 6th from 9 am to 1 pm at the McBride Center, 91 Town Square Place. New knives, courtesy of Cutco cutlery, will make chopping and slicing much easier. As always, participants will leave with gobs of goodies, a cookbook and recipes. Register today at any Community Center or on-line at www.cityofvacaville.com. These classes fill up quickly as spaces are limited. For more information call 469-6674.

EXPERIENCE THE JOYS OF LIFE LONG LEARNING!

The City of Vacaville's Community Services Department will again offer a new class in the Science for Seniors series. This new class, Principles of Xeriscaping, will explore the process of gardening using less water. Soil permeability, water retention, plant choice and positioning will all be covered using demonstrations, graphs and activities. This topic is especially important as Northern California's water supply may be reduced due to protection of endangered species. This class will start Monday, October 8th from 10 am to 12 pm at the McBride Center and will continue weekly until October 29th. Adults 50 and older may register at any Community Center or on-line www.cityofvacaville.com. The class will again be lead by Beverly Morlock, Community Services staff and Solano Community College Adjunct Faculty. The cost for this class is $30 and includes all supplies and information. For more information call 469-6674.
