

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
April 27th, 2010

Styles For Less Returns to Vacaville

Vacaville, California — Styles For Less opened its doors on April 17th, 2010 and will celebrate the new addition to the company during a grand opening event on May 8th, 2010.

Styles For Less is located at Vacaville Commons on Harbison, next to Pier 1 Imports. The 2,658 sq. ft. retail store carries the latest apparel for young girls and ladies of all ages. This store creates an energetic atmosphere by displaying the hottest trends, playing the latest hits and making everyone's overall shopping experience a unique and exciting one for both the customer and the associate.

“We are gathering local business to participate during our Grand Opening event” says Marizel Harrison, District Manager for the new location, “it will be great having our neighbors be a part of our event.”

Styles For Less has once again revamped its grand opening program by offering the most that has ever been offered at any of its locations. The offers will begin with free gift cards for everyone in line before 10 AM on Saturday the 8th of May, everyone will also get 25% off the entire store all day. The event will go on with raffles, Live DJ performance and free giveaways.

Styles For Less provides a great selection of the trendiest apparel for school, career, casual wear, including; denim, dresses, shorts, skirts, short & long sleeved tops as well as fashionable accessories to fit the look, such as handbags, shoes, jewelry and much more.

The company is currently operating 123 stores from the Headquarters/Distribution center in Santa Fe Springs, CA and it is planning on growing this year. For all locations and to receive additional information on future events, visit www.stylesforless.com.

###
