Location: 1600 Block of Alamo Drive
Suspect(s): Richard Viramontes, 19 years, out of Vacaville

Narrative:

On August 16, 2007, a Vacaville Police Officer was flagged down and advised that two stabbing victims were on their way to Vaca Valley Hospital. At the same time there were reports of a fight taking place in the 1600 block of Alamo Drive. Officers located two stabbing victims at Vaca Valley Hospital. One victim suffered wounds to his torso and arms. The injuries are serious but not life threatening. The other victim suffered wounds to his arms and those wounds were also not life threatening.

Additional Officers responded to the area of the 1600 block of Alamo Drive. Upon arrival a witness pointed out two subjects that were responsible for the stabbing. Officers attempted to stop the subjects however the subjects fled on foot. Officers were able to give chase and subsequently detain the subjects.

Officers were able to determine that (S) Richard Viramontes, 19 years, out of Vacaville was responsible for the assault. Viramontes was subsequently arrested. The second subject was a juvenile and was arrested for an unrelated charge.
