Narrative:

In the early morning hours of August 21, 2007 the Vacaville Police & Fire Communications Center received a report of an assault with a deadly weapon in the 1200 block of Meadowlark Drive. Officers arrived on scene and found three vehicles with windows smashed out. The victim tried to stop the suspects by holding on to their vehicle, a white Ford Ranger pick up. He was dragged a short distance by the suspect vehicle before letting go. The victim had visible injuries but declined paramedics. The estimated cost of the vandalism is $1,500.00.

Officer Martinez observed the described suspect vehicle on Alamo Drive while responding to the scene. A subsequent traffic stop was conducted and the occupants were detained. The victim responded to the traffic stop and positively identified S-Bray, S-Breen and S-Sanders as being the suspects. Evidence was found inside the vehicle which linked the suspects to the crime scene.

S-Bray was arrested for 23152VC-Driving under the influence, 182-PC-Conspiracy, 594PC-Felony Vandalism and 245PC-Assault with a Deadly Weapon.

S-Breen was arrested for 182-PC-Conspiracy, 594PC-Felony Vandalism and 245PC-Assault with a Deadly Weapon.

S-Sanders was arrested for 182-PC-Conspiracy, 594PC-Felony Vandalism and 245PC-Assault with a Deadly Weapon.

Anyone who may have witnessed this incident or has information is asked to call Officer Scott Whitehouse at (707)449-5200.
