Narrative: On the above noted date and time the suspect approached a teller of the Wells Fargo Bank located inside the Safeway store on Harbison Drive and presented a note demanding cash. The suspect threatened to shoot the teller but no weapon was displayed or seen. The suspect was provided cash and walked out of the main entry/exit doors at the front of Safeway. No information was available as to his means of transportation after he left the store. A search of the surrounding area by patrol officers met with negative results.

This case is being jointly investigated by Vacaville Police and the F.B.I. Anyone with information about this incident or who can identify the suspect in the attached photos is asked to call Detective Otha Livingston at 449-5270.
