Narrative: The Vacaville Police Department received a report that a female victim had been sexually assaulted at the above location. Patrol Officer's met with the victim who stated she had been sexually assaulted by an unknown suspect. Officer's established a perimeter and searched the area with the assistance of a police canine and air support from the California Highway Patrol. The suspect was not located.

Detectives from the Family Investigative Response Services Team assumed the investigation. The investigation has shown that the victim was taking a nightly walk when she came across the suspect standing on the bike path. The suspect tried to engage the victim in a conversation. The victim tried to walk past the suspect. The suspect grabbed the victim from the rear and drug her into some brush. The suspect hit the victim in the head several times with a rock and sexually assaulted her.

The victim managed to pick up a rock and fought her attacker. The victim struck the suspect several times in the head with a rock to end the assault. The suspect was last seen running north from the area. The victim described the suspect as having a bad body odor and had a strong odor of alcohol coming from his breath.

The victim was treated for injuries to her head. Anyone who was in the area of Browns Valley Parkway between Clarescastle Way and Glen Eagle Way between 6:30 PM and 7:30 PM on Sunday night, November 11, 2007 and believes they have information regarding this case is asked to call Detective Dave Marsh at 469-6616.
