Narrative:

12/02/07, 12:15 AM: The Vacaville Police Department received a report that a victim had been raped while incapacitated by alcohol. Detectives from the Family Investigative Response Services Team assumed the investigation. Detectives learned the victim had been at a party inside a private residence in Vacaville. The victim became sick and went into a bedroom and vomited before losing consciousness. The victim woke up briefly to being raped by the suspect before losing consciousness again.

The victim woke up hours later at her home with no memory of getting home. The victim called a friend and told the friend that she had been raped. The suspect learned the victim was calling the police and left his home with a handgun. The suspect drove around until he eventually called the police to make arrangements to turn himself in. The suspect turned himself in to patrol officers at the Vacaville Police Department without incident.

The suspect was arrested and booked into the Solano County Jail. The suspects bail was set at $46,667.
