Narrative:

On July 8, 2008 the Vacaville Police Department received information that a juvenile female had been the victim of continuous and substantial sexual molestation. The case was assigned to detectives from the Family Investigative Response Services Team (F.I.R.S.T.) who initiated an investigation. Detectives interviewed the victim and gathered evidence of the crimes.

Detectives from the Family Investigative Response Services Team, officers from the Youth Services Section and officers from Uniformed Patrol made contact with the suspect as he was attempting to leave his residence. The suspect who was positively identified as S-Ashley was taken into custody without incident. S-Ashley was booked into the Solano County Jail. His bail was set at $111,667.

This case is still under active investigation. Anyone who believes they may have information regarding this confidential case is asked to call Detective Erwin Ramirez or Detective Shawn Windham at 469-6600.
