Narrative:

On January 23, 2009 at approximately 10:58 a.m., employees at the Wells Fargo Bank located inside Lucky Supermarket were confronted by the suspect. The suspect politely greeted a teller with a bag in his hand and produced a demand note demanding money. The teller put the money in the bag and the suspect thanked her for doing so. The teller did not see any weapons, but the suspect is presumed to be armed and dangerous. The suspect fled on foot in an unknown direction. Witnesses reported seeing a blue Ford Areostar van driving recklessly after the robbery.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic or Asian adult male approximately 25 – 30 years old. He was seen wearing a black pea coat and wool dress hat. The suspect appeared to be wearing large rimmed prescription glasses and was talking on a cell phone during the crime. The police department is requesting citizen's assistance with the case and have attached a photograph of the suspect. If you have any information, witnessed this crime, or can identify the suspect in the photo, please contact Detective Todd Dye at (707)449-5212.
