Narrative:

On February 7, 2009, at approximately 11:24 a.m., officers from the Vacaville Police Department responded to Winco. The victim reported her vehicle had just been taken by a subject who confronted her in the parking lot with a handgun and demanded her car keys. A county-wide broadcast and search for her vehicle was initiated. Officers conducted an extensive check of the area, but were unable to locate the vehicle or suspect.

Upon their arrival, the officers discovered the victim was in the process of unloading her groceries when she was approached by an unknown subject. The subject displayed a handgun and demanded her keys. The victim dropped the keys and ran away. The suspect took the vehicle and fled in an unknown direction. Fortunately, the victim did not sustain any injuries during this incident and quickly called for assistance.

The suspect is described as an African American male, 25-30 years old, 5'8", approximately 175 pounds. He was wearing a black beanie and black jacket. The vehicle he took is a navy blue 2004 Jeep Cherokee, California License Plate "KJRYAN". The license plate has a small hand symbol between the letters "J" and "R."

If you see this vehicle, do not approach or make contact with the driver. Contact your local law enforcement agency immediately, because the suspect is considered armed and dangerous.
