Submitted By: Matt Lydon, Sergeant
Phone: 707-449-5236
Case Number 09-3053
Type of Crime/Incident: 245(a)(1) – Assault with a Deadly Weapon
Location: Berryessa Drive at Shasta Drive (Vacaville)
Suspects: Perez, Edgar 21 years old, Vacaville Resident

Narrative:

On the above date and time, the Solano California Highway Patrol (CHP) notified Vacaville Police Department that a stabbing had taken place in Vacaville. CHP learned of the incident when they received a 911 call from the stabbing victim. The stabbing victim and acquaintances were chasing the suspect vehicle on surface streets in Vacaville prior to the chase entering Eastbound I-80.

CHP was able to locate both the victim's vehicle and the suspect vehicle Eastbound I-80 near Midway Road. CHP initiated a stop on both vehicles on Highway 113 in Dixon with the assistance of the Dixon Police Department.

Vacaville Officers met with CHP and Dixon Police and assumed the investigation. It was learned an altercation involving seven (7) males took place at the intersection of Berryessa Drive and Shasta Drive in Vacaville. During the altercation, S-Perez used an unknown type stabbing instrument to stab the victim. S-Perez was later positively identified by the victim and a witness.

The victim later sought medical attention at Vaca Valley Hospital. The extent of the victim's injuries are unknown at this time but are not believed to be life threatening.

This case is currently under investigation by the Vacaville Police Department Crime Suppression Team. Anyone with information is encouraged to call Detective Adam Senf at 707-449-5262.
