NARRATIVE:

On May, 16, 2009 at approximately 12:56 a.m., witnesses reported a head on collision on Ulatis Drive at Stonegate Drive. Officers arrived at the collision to find three damaged vehicles in the roadway. An investigation revealed that a domestic violence battery allegedly occurred in the area of La Cruz Lane where Aberham struck her boyfriend several times on the face. The boyfriend fled the area in his truck and Aberham followed in her Honda. As the boyfriend was stopped at La Cruz Lane and Alamo Drive, Aberham purposely rearended her boyfriend's truck. When the boyfriend drove to Ulatis Drive, Aberham then broadsided his truck on the driver's side.

Aberham then turned her car around and stopped facing east in the west bound lane. An innocent driver, who was driving west in his Toyota Corolla, drove into the east bound lane in an attempt to drive around Aberham. Aberham saw the innocent driver and drove east bound back into the east bound lane and struck the Toyota who was west bound in the east bound lane. Aberham was transported to Vaca Valley Hospital where she was treated and released to police officers. Aberham was arrested for suspected DUI, assault with a deadly weapon and domestic battery. The two other drivers were not injured in this ordeal.
