UPDATE OF MISSING PERSONS CASES**

Narrative:

On July 9, 2009, 15-year-old Alicia Cunningham was reported as a runaway juvenile along with her 2-year-old son, Alexander Cunningham.

On today's date, Alicia made contact with her family and indicated that she was going to return home to collect some personal items but had no intention of staying. Police were called with the update of this investigation and were able to make contact with Alicia and two adult males who had provided transportation for Alicia and her baby to the Vacaville residence.

After questioning, one adult male was released. The second, (S) Johnson, was placed under citizen's arrest for Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor and was taken to the Solano County Jail in Fairfield.

Both juveniles were healthy and unharmed and were reunited with their family members.

Vacaville Police Department would like to thank the media agencies who assisted by disseminating photos and identifying information of the Runaways to the public and all those who may have assisted in attempting to located these two children. Their family members are grateful for their safe return.

Narrative:

The Vacaville Police Department is attempting to locate a 15-year-old runaway named Alicia Cunningham, who ran away with her two-year-old son, Alexander. It is suspected that Alicia and Alexander are in the Vacaville/Fairfield area, possibly staying with friends. If you have seen Alicia or Alexander, please call the Vacaville Police Department at (707) 449-5200.
