Narrative:

Thirty-six School Crossing Guards gathered on August 12, 2009 for a training refresher and awards ceremony for outstanding performance during the 2008-2009 school year.

The following individuals received excellent performance awards: Bennie Bishop (Foxboro), Dennis Corcoran (Foxboro), Joseph Despaine (Markham), Mildred Johnson (Alamo), Penny Ramey (Cambridge), and Richard Record (Hemlock).

Five year service pins were awarded to Rhonda Bush (Padan), Janis Dmytriv (Hemlock), Johanna Hoagland (Jepson), and Penny Ramey (Cambridge).

Chief Richard Word presented Penny Ramey with the 2009 Crossing Guard of the Year Award. Penny has worked as a School Crossing Guard for five years. She is stationed at the intersection of Nut Tree and Hyannis at Cambridge Elementary School. Penny is extremely creative and loves to make going to school fun for the children. She greets everyone with a smile and dresses up for the holidays in various character costumes to entertain the children. Penny has exhibited reliable and exemplary service and has been awarded several honors over the years, including three perfect attendance awards.

Vacaville School Crossing Guards are assigned to twenty-nine intersections that include fourteen public schools. Remember to be alert, drive safely around school zones, and give yourself enough time to avoid being in a rush on the roadway.
