Narrative:

On September 24, 2009 at 2:47 p.m., the Vacaville Police Department received a call from a citizen about a DUI driver on Nut Tree Road at Alamo Drive. The driver apparently nearly hit two children within the crosswalk and ran a red light while making a right turn onto Alamo Drive. The citizen later saw a motorcycle officer on a traffic stop on Alamo Drive and reported his observations to him. The officer advised other units of the vehicle description and direction of travel. Responding officers located the vehicle at the intersection of Alamo Drive and the on ramp to E/B I-80. The driver had high centered his vehicle on the raised concrete divider near the on-ramp. The driver was identified by his driver license as Frederick Alphonso Cassidy of Winters, California. S-Cassidy displayed obvious signs of impairment. Officers conducted a DUI investigation and determined that S-Cassidy was under the influence of a Narcotic. S-Cassidy was arrested for driving a motor vehicle while under the influence. He was taken to Vaca Valley Hospital for a legal blood test and was later released on a citation and released to a responsible adult.
