Narrative:

On November 26, 2009, 9:51 a.m., Vacaville Patrol Officers received a complaint that a three year old child had received an injury to his face while at a licensed home day care. Officer Curtis initiated an investigation and learned that the child received an injury to his face as a result of alleged discipline by the licensed home day care provider. Officers were not able to locate the alleged suspect.

On September 28, 2009, 12:44 a.m., Detectives from the Vacaville Police Department, Family Investigative Response Services Team (F.I.R.S.T.) and investigators from the State of California, Community Care Licensing assumed the investigation.
