NARRATIVE:

On October 2, 2009 at approximately 2:11 p.m., Vacaville Dispatch received a call from a hysterical female who was reporting a fight in 936 Merchant Street. As Officers approached the area, the reporting party told the dispatcher that the suspects were leaving in a black Lincoln Navigator onto west bound I-80. Officers searched I-80 while other Officers arrived at the parking where the victims were located. Officers located a black Lincoln Navigator on west bound I-80 exiting at Pena Adobe. Officer Ferreira followed the vehicle back onto I-80 but in a easterly direction this time. Officer Ferreira and other officers initiated a high risk stop on the Cliffside Drive off ramp where five subjects were detained.

An infield lineup was conducted and s-Michael Lopez was positively identified as the person who fought with the victim and stole his necklace, cellular phone and diamond earring. S-Lopez was taken to jail along with s-Middleton who was arrested for public intoxication and resisting arrest, s-Wendham was arrested for public intoxication and s-Travelena was arrested for an outstanding warrant. S-Travelena was issued and citation and released while the other three were transported to Solano County Jail.
