Press Release

Today's Date: 11/08/09
Date & Time Occurred: 11/08/09 4:15 a.m.
Submitted By: Sgt. Williams
Phone: 707-449-5235
Type of Crime/Incident: Auto Burglary, vehicle tampering
Suspect: Shane Kinney 22 year old male

Narrative:

On the above date and time, Officers Eisert and N. King were patrolling the area of the auto dealerships on Orange Drive when they noticed a suspicious person whom they recognized from prior contacts as s-Shane Kinney. S-Kinney was riding a bicycle without a forward facing light in the area of the Volkswagon dealership. The officers stopped s-Kinney for the traffic violation and immediately noticed he was under the influence of an illegal drug. While Officer Eisert investigated this further, Officer N. King and Officer Hopper conducted an area check for suspicious activity. Officer N. King located s-Kinney's vehicle parked in the Shellworth Chevrolet parking lot near several vehicles that had been burglarized or tampered with. Officer Hopper located several vehicle across the street at the Enterprise Rental Car that had been burglarized or tampered with. S-Kinney was arrested for being under the influence of an illegal stimulant, vehicle tampering and vehicle burglary, and he was transported to Solano County Jail.
