POLICE DEPARTMENT STING RESULTS IN ARREST AT LOCAL SPA

As part of an ongoing effort to reduce the rate of prostitution in Vacaville, detectives from the Vacaville Police Department's Investigative Services Division on December 24, 2009 conducted an undercover sting operation at the Green Spa, 129 Peabody Road.

As a result of the operation, Hui Cha Kim, 55, was arrested for soliciting a sex act and was booked into Solano County Jail. A booking photo of Kim is attached.

Vacaville Police recently concluded a three-month investigation into alleged prostitution activities in our City, resulting in the arrest of five individuals for various crimes.

The goal of these operations is to curtail this activity in Vacaville as well as maintain a level of safety in our neighborhoods for our residents and visitors alike.

Under state and local law, property owners are required to ensure that criminal activity does not occur on their property. As a result, a Community Safety Ordinance violation letter is being sent to the owner of the business.

The purpose of the letter is to inform the owner of violations that have occurred on their property that are considered a public nuisance, and the need of the property owner to take appropriate and reasonable action to prevent or address those violations.

Anyone with information about similar violations should contact Detective Todd Dye at (707) 449-5212.

Criminal activity can be reported at www.cityofvacaville.com/departments/police, or you can call "Crime Stoppers" and leave an anonymous tip at 707-644-STOP (7867). Crime Stoppers may pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest.
