Narrative:

On Saturday January 16, 2010 at approximately 7:52 p.m., the Vacaville Police Department Communications Center received several 911 calls regarding a large fight involving 7 to 8 subjects in the 2500 block of Alamo Drive. Responding Patrol Officers located two victims that had been stabbed during the altercation. No suspects were located.

Vacaville Fire Department responded to the scene and both victims were transported to Vaca Valley Hospital. One victim was eventually flown to John Muir Hospital for additional medical treatment while the other victim was transported by ground ambulance to the U.C. Davis Medical Center in Sacramento. At the time of this press release the condition of both victims is unknown.

Our initial investigation has revealed that both victims were involved in a verbal confrontation which turned physical resulting in the stabbing. It also appears that this confrontation was gang related.

This case is being investigated by the Crime Suppression Team. Anyone with information about the case is asked to contact Det. Smith at (707) 449-5228 or (707) 449-5200.
