VACAVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT ARRESTS PAROLED SEX OFFENDER

Vacaville Police arrested a convicted sex offender on Saturday afternoon after he allegedly tried to lure a minor into his residence.

The alleged victim's mother informed police that Robert Sierra, 54, had approached her son. Sierra allegedly had given candy and offered a DVD player to her son if he came to Sierra's room. The minor refused the offer and instead told his mother what had happened. His mother then contacted the police.

At that point Vacaville Police, working with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation Adult Parole Operations (CDCR Parole), verified the identity of the sex offender as Sierra, who is on active parole. Officers arrested Sierra at his apartment, where a parole hold was issued. Sierra was booked into Solano County Jail without incident.

The Vacaville Police Department actively collaborates with CDCR Parole to monitor convicted sex offenders in our community. The Vacaville Police Department would like to remind parents and guardians to monitor and supervise their children's activities, and that it is important to teach children that it is OK to say "no" to strangers.

Vacaville Police encourage parents to report any suspicious activity involving their children to the police department at (707) 449-5200.
