'TAGGING' ENDS WITH ARREST OF TWO JUVENILES FOR VANDALISM

Two juveniles were arrested Saturday on charges of felony vandalism after neighbors alerted police to the crime.

Police received a call from a witness at 12:34 p.m. that two young men were tagging Red Pheasant Park, 301 Madison Ave. When contacted by police at the park, the two suspects fled.

Following a brief chase, police apprehended one suspect, a 17-year-old juvenile, on Nancy Circle. The second suspect, a 14-year-old juvenile, was later found hiding at a friend's house on Cinnabar Way. Both were arrested and admitted to tagging the park. The two suspects were booked into Solano County Juvenile Hall.

An investigation found that the surrounding walls, the playground area, and the cement walkway of the park had been tagged by the suspects.

If residents see anyone applying graffiti, they should call 449-5200. If residents see graffiti anywhere in the City of Vacaville, please call the Graffiti Hotline at (707) 449-5693.
