VACAVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT ARRESTS THREE THEFT SUSPECTS

Vacaville Police on Thursday evening arrested three Stockton residents after they allegedly took property without paying for it from several stores at the Vacaville Premium Outlets.

A store employee at Burberry, a clothing retailer located at the Outlets, informed police that several individuals were seen taking property from the store. The witness told officers the individuals left the store without paying for the property and fled the scene. The employee then pointed out a white SUV in which the suspects were passengers. Officers saw the vehicle leave the Factory Stores and turn south on Nut Tree Road.

At that point, police pursued and then stopped the vehicle on Yellowstone Road near Rainier Circle. Officers detained three passengers in the SUV and conducted an infield line-up. The suspects were identified as Thanh Tran, 29, of Stockton; Nghia Tran, 28, of Stockton; and Thuy Huynh, 27, of Stockton.

Criminal activity can be reported at www.cityofvacaville.com/departments/police, or you can call "Crime Stoppers" and leave an anonymous tip at 707-644-STOP.7867). Crime Stoppers may pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest.

Officers recovered $3,557.97 in stolen property from Burberry, BCBG, Banana Republic and Charlotte Russe, all stores located in the Outlets. The suspects were subsequently arrested and booked into the Solano County Jail. The stolen property was returned to the respective businesses.

The Vacaville Police Department encourages anyone who witnesses a crime to safely obtain as much detail as possible and call the police department at (707) 449-5200. In the case of an emergency, call 911.
