TWO ARRESTED IN SEPARATE CHILD POROGRAPHY CASES

Vacaville police have arrested two men for possession of child pornography after completing two separate investigations.

Lionel Tukumoeatu, 21, of Vacaville turned himself in on February 9, while Robert Weathers, 33, of Vacaville surrendered to police on February 10 on an unrelated criminal case. Both suspects were booked into Solano County jail.

On January 7, a search warrant was served Tukumoeatu's home in the 1800 block of Alamo Drive. Several computers and computer equipment were seized during this search. A forensic examination was conducted on this property and child pornography was discovered.

A search warrant was also served at Weathers's home, located in the 3500 block of Harbison Drive. Computers and electronic storage devices were also seized on this case. The subsequent forensic examination of this property also revealed the possession of child pornography.

These types of cases are often the result of a concerned citizen passing information of suspicious activity to police. Once this activity has been identified, the Vacaville Police can use the resources of our computer lab to investigate. Anyone with information on similar cases is urged to contact the police immediately at (707) 449-5200.
