Narrative:

On March 6, 2010 at approximately 2:00 a.m., officers received information that suspect(s) just entered the Nut Tree Storage facility located at 2049 East Monte Vista Avenue and were in the process of stealing boat motors. The associated suspect vehicle was described as black Pontiac Grand Am. Moments later officers observed the suspect vehicle leave the scene and drive westbound on I-80. Officers followed the vehicle and conducted a traffic stop on Dover Street in the City of Fairfield. The driver, who was identified as Vacaville resident, S-Gene Jorgensen (44) was found to be in possession of three boat motors.

Officers responded back to the Nut Tree Storage facility and located a 2x4 foot section of chain link fence that was cut open. Officers conducted a security check of the premises and located a boat with its outboard motor missing. Later the boat owner was contacted and he identified one of the motors as his.

S-Jorgensen was arrested for grand theft, possession of stolen property, trespassing and vandalism. He was booked into Solano County Jail and the case remains under investigation. Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call Officer Willis at 707-449-5200.
