POLICE SEEK HELP IN IDENTIFYING THREE BURGLARY SUSPECTS

Vacaville Police are asking for the public's help in identifying three individuals who were seen damaging a vehicle in Town Square on Monday evening.

At approximately 8:42 p.m., a City of Vacaville employee saw someone damaging a vehicle in Town Square. The employee yelled at the person to stop, and managed to take photos of the person responsible.

The person began chasing the city employee, who ran into the McBride Center and locked himself inside. The employee then called 911 and reported the incident.

Three people then chased after the employee, and forced their way into the McBride Center in an attempt to retrieve the camera. They were unsuccessful, and all three left the area before police arrived.

If you can identify either of the two people in these photos, or have any information about this incident, please contact Detective David Kellis at (707) 449-5258 or the Vacaville Police Department at (707) 449-5200.
