POLICE ARREST VACAVILLE MAN ON ASSAULT, THREAT CHARGES

Vacaville Police on Monday evening used a taser to subdue and arrest a man on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and making criminal threats.

At approximately 4:33 p.m., officers responded to several 911 calls about a verbal disturbance in the 700 block of Oak Brook Drive. Officers located the residence where the disturbance was taking place and, as they approached the home, saw Christopher Strickler, 23, of Vacaville strangling a woman.

Officers immediately entered the home through an unlocked door front door to intervene. Strickler did not cooperate with officers and was subsequently tasered and then detained.

Police spoke to the victim and learned that, along with choking her, Strickler had also threatened to kill her. The woman suffered minor injuries and was treated at the scene by Vacaville Fire Department personnel.

Strickler was transported to VacaValley Hospital for medical clearance and later booked into Solano County Jail.
