VACAVILLE POLICE SEEK TWO IN SHOOTING, ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Vacaville police are looking for two suspects in a shooting and attempted robbery that took place late Friday evening.

The victim, a Suisun City resident, was walking near the Jack in the Box restaurant at 1035 Alamo Drive a little after 11 p.m. when he was approached by two men who demanded his personal property.

The victim told the two men he had no property and walked away to avoid further confrontation. The two men followed and again demanded the victim's property. The victim refused and started to run through the parking lot. Moments later, the victim felt pain in his right foot and noticed he was bleeding. The victim took off his shoe and realized he had been shot. The victim was able to walk to his vehicle and drive himself to NorthBay Hospital in Fairfield, where he was treated and released.

According to the victim, the first suspect is a Hispanic male, 20-30 years old, approximately 5'7" tall, with a thin build. He was last seen wearing a brown T-shirt and black pants. The second suspect is a white male, 20-30 years old, approximately 5'7" tall, with a thin build. He was last seen wearing a blue T-shirt and dark jeans.

Anyone with information related to the investigation is encouraged to call Officer Andrew Yetter at 707-449-5200.
