VACAVILLE POLICE ARREST THREE FOUND WITH LOADED SHOTGUN

Vacaville police arrested three people early Monday morning after they were found to be carrying a loaded shotgun.

At approximately 2:50 a.m., Monday morning police responded to a call of a prowler from a resident in the area of Browns Valley Road near Glen Eagle Way. The resident reported that four people dressed in black had just rang his doorbell. The resident did not open the door, and the four people left, possibly in a white vehicle. One of the people was seen sticking a shotgun down the front of his pants as he left the driveway area of the home.

Officers on scene saw a white vehicle following a maroon vehicle at a high rate of speed south on Browns Valley Road. Officers broadcasted the vehicle descriptions and a vehicle stop was made of both vehicles.

On further investigation, police recovered a loaded shotgun from the maroon vehicle. All three occupants were arrested for possessing a loaded shotgun. The two occupants in the white vehicle were associated with the maroon vehicle but they did not have any illegal items in their vehicle. They were released on a citation for a vehicle code violation and released.

It appears that this confrontation was a continuation of a fight that occurred earlier on Davis Street the day before.
