VACAVILLE POLICE ARREST TWO ON VARIOUS DRUG CHARGES

Police arrested two people Friday morning following the discovery of over 200 immature marijuana plants inside their vehicle.

At about 11:45 p.m. on Thursday evening, a Vacaville patrol officer spotted two individuals inside a black Honda Accord in the area of Ambassador Place and Rio Grande Drive. Upon contacting the occupants, officers detected a strong odor of marijuana coming from inside the vehicle. Officers conducted a search of the vehicle and found 225 immature marijuana plants and a clear plastic bag with psilocybin mushrooms.

Further investigation revealed that a residence located in the 100 block of Fairview Drive had additional contraband. Detectives from the Vacaville Narcotics Team obtained a search warrant for the residence and located another 100 immature marijuana plants, 10 mature marijuana plants and 1.5 pounds of processed marijuana. Detectives also located a loaded shotgun and packaging material, indicating that the marijuana was not for personal use.

Police arrested S-Jaime Cebula, 34, of Fairfield and S-Matthew Metzger, 27, of Vacaville. S-Metzger was booked into Solano County Jail for cultivating marijuana, possession of marijuana for sale, transportation of marijuana, transportation of psilocybin mushrooms and possession of a controlled substance. Cebula, the driver of the car, was booked into Solano County Jail for an outstanding warrant and transporting marijuana in a vehicle.
