AREA PUBLIC SAFETY AGENCIES GATHER FOR TRAINING SESSIONS

The Vacaville Police Department in partnership with the Vacaville Fire Department, Solano County Office of Emergency Services, Solano Community College, the California Emergency Management Agency and the United States Department of Homeland Security will sponsor a First Responder, Law Enforcement Field Support Course for the Solano County Mutual Aid Mobile Field Force on May 19th and May 20th, 2010.

Solano County Mutual Aid Mobile Field Force is comprised of officers from law enforcement agencies throughout Solano County. The primary mission of the Solano County Mutual Aid Mobile Field Force is to respond to incidents of crowd management, civil or criminal disasters, and other incidents at the direction of the Solano County Office of Emergency Services.

This 16-hour course is designed to take place in the classroom and in the field. Classroom training will take place on the Vacaville campus of Solano Community College each morning. During the training, Horse Creek Drive between Grasslands Road and Ackerly Drive will be closed from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. There will be minimal interruption to traffic or businesses in the area.

Citizens can drive from Genentech and the State Fund area to the Kaiser Hospital by using Vaca Valley Parkway or New Horizons Way that will connect Ackerly Way and Grassland Drive.

There will be no use of munitions or chemicals and no firearms will be discharged during this course.

This course is funded by the Solano County Office of Emergency Services and the California Emergency Management Agency. Anyone with questions regarding this training is asked to call Sgt. Charlie Spruill at (707) 449-5414.
