POLICE ARREST MAN FOR POSSESSION OF CHILD PORN, ASSAULT WEAPON

Vacaville police on Thursday arrested a local man after a search of his home turned up evidence of child pornography and a banned assault weapon.

Police arrested S-Marcus Barbara, 25, of Vacaville at his job at a construction materials manufacturing company in Dixon.

Following an ongoing investigation, officers from the City's Investigative Services Team (ISS) executed a search warrant at S-Barbara's home in the 500 block of Grandview Court in Vacaville. During the search, they discovered evidence of child pornography and seized several computers, computer storage devices and computer equipment. Also found at the home was a TEC-9 semi automatic pistol. Possession of this weapon in California is illegal as it is on the banned assault weapons list. Following the search, police arrested S-Barbara without incident at his job in Dixon.

The Vacaville Police Department will continue to work these types of criminal cases vigorously whenever they come to our attention. Anyone with information about this case or other similar cases is asked to call Detective Todd Dye at (707) 449-5200.
