Case Number: 10-04777
Type of Crime/Incident: 211 PC Bank
Location: 661 Elmira Road, First Northern Bank
Suspects: S-Rotteveel, Hubert, 47 years old from Dixon

Narrative:

On June 24, 2010, a masked gunman entered the First Northern Bank on Elmira Road in Vacaville and robbed the employees. An undisclosed amount of cash was taken during the robbery.

On June 30, 2010, similar robberies were reported in Yolo County. A River City Bank Branch was robbed in the City of Woodland. Later in the day, a First Northern Bank in West Sacramento was also robbed. These two cases and the one in Vacaville appeared to be very similar in the way the crime was completed.

S-Rotteveel was captured during the robbery in West Sacramento. Investigators from West Sacramento, Woodland and detectives from the Investigative Services Section (ISS) of the Vacaville Police Department began working the cases together.

A search warrant was served at S-Rotteveel's home and his office in the City of Dixon. Several pieces of evidence were recovered and investigators believe that S-Rotteveel is the responsible in the Vacaville case. Detectives are seeking an arrest warrant for S-Rotteveel in Solano County. He is currently being housed in the Yolo County Jail on bank robbery charges stemming from the cases in that jurisdiction.

The investigation is ongoing and anyone with information about this robbery is asked to contact Detective Gary Anderson at (707) 449-5200.
