THIRTY-SIX VEHICLES VANDALIZED IN SOUTH VACAVILLE

Police are asking for the public's help in finding the person or persons responsible for the vandalism of thirty-six (36) vehicles late Tuesday evening and early Wednesday morning in south Vacaville.

Between 4:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m., the Vacaville Police Department Communications Center began receiving reports of vandalism to vehicles throughout south Vacaville. Officers responded to similar reports of vandalism throughout the morning.

An investigation determined that an unknown person or persons drove throughout south Vacaville vandalizing vehicles late Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning. The vandalism consisted of the rear windows of approximately thirty-six (36) vehicles being broken out. It is possible the damage was caused by a BB gun or other similar device.

Despite the damage, police did not receive reports of any noise consistent with the damage found. Currently, there are no witnesses or suspects. Anyone with information regarding these crimes, or to report suspicious activity, should call the Vacaville Police Department at (707) 449-5200.
