Fairfield Residents Arrested For Home Invasion Robbery

Narrative:

August 21, 2010 at approximately 3:30 p.m., the Vacaville Police Department responded to a report that an alleged home invasion robbery had just occurred at a North Vacaville residence. The Vacaville Police Department received a report that two suspects had forcibly entered a residence with the intent to commit a robbery. There was one adult and three juveniles in the home when the robbery took place. The adult and two juveniles were assaulted during the robbery. The adult female victim was transported to Vaca Valley Hospital for treatment of her injuries. A witness reported seeing what was believed to be a handgun tucked in the waistband of suspect two. The suspects were seen fleeing the scene in a black Chevy Tahoe.

Officer's in the area saw a Black Chevy Tahoe with two subjects fitting the description of the two suspects entering I-80 west at the Mason and Depot Street on ramp. Vacaville Police Officers, with the assistance of the California Highway Patrol, initiated a high risk stop on the vehicle on I-80 west near Davis Street. The suspects were taken into custody and booked into the Solano County Jail without incident. Officer's recovered a loaded handgun believed used in the robbery.
