VACAVILLE PD MAKES SIX ARRESTS DURING PROSTITUTION STING

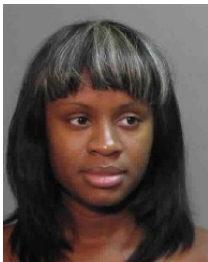

Six women were arrested for prostitution during a recent sting conducted by the Vacaville Police Department.

On September 7, 2010 detectives from the Vacaville Police Department's Investigative Services Section (ISS) conducted an undercover operation targeting prostitution occurring in Vacaville. The suspects used the Internet to advertise sexual acts and then traveled to Vacaville to commit the crimes.

An undercover police officer posing a customer was used in each case. The suspects listed above were all arrested as a result of the investigation efforts. All suspects were charged with the act of prostitution and escorting in Vacaville without a license, and were transported to the Solano County Jail.

The goal of this and other similar operations is to deter criminal activity and behavior that jeopardizes public safety in Vacaville. This kind of crime may seem petty but is directly associated with home invasion robberies, burglary, theft, assault and even murder.

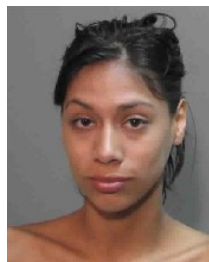

A photo of each of the suspects has been attached to this press release. Anyone with information about similar activities is asked to contact Detective Todd Dye at (707) 449-5200.
