POLICE ARREST SUSPECT AFTER THEFT FROM FACTORY OUTLET STORES

On Thursday, September 16, 2010, Vacaville Police arrested a man after he allegedly took property without paying for it from eight stores at the Vacaville Premium Outlets.

A store employee at Wilson's Leather, a clothing retailer located at the Outlets, informed police that an adult male with a young child was seen taking property without paying for the items. Store employees followed the suspect as he fled and provided officers with a description of the suspect's vehicle. Officers located the vehicle and S-Roberto Carlos Reynoso-Rodriguez, 24, of Suisun City was detained.

Officers recovered nearly $2,500 in stolen property from eight different stores at the outlets. S-Reynoso-Rodriguez was arrested and booked into the Solano County Jail. Solano County Welfare Services responded to assist with the child. The stolen property was returned to the businesses or booked as evidence.
