UPDATE

POLICE ARREST GIRLFRIEND OF SUSPECT IN DOUBLE HOMICIDE

Vacaville police have arrested the girlfriend of the man suspected of killing two people and wounding a third in an early Tuesday morning shooting.

At approximately 2:13 p.m. on Thursday, November 18, 2010, detectives from the department's Investigative Services Section (ISS) arrested S-Nicole Ozment, 19, of Vacaville. S-Ozment, who is the girlfriend of shooting suspect S-Richard Ruben Calkins, was booked into Solano County Jail for possession for sale of marijuana, child endangerment and maintaining a place for drug use.

S-Ozment, who lives at the 500 Block of William Street, was present on Tuesday morning when the shooting occurred that left two people dead and a third seriously injured. S-Ozment's 7-month-old child was also present when the shooting occurred.

The child has been placed into protective custody. S-Calkins, who is in police custody, is the father of S-Ozment's child.

The investigation into the drug sales and homicide are continuing and more arrests are possible. Anyone with information about this case is asked to contact the Vacaville Police Department at (707) 449-5200.

UPDATE

Criminal activity can be reported at www.cityofvacaville.com/departments/police, or you can call "Crime Stoppers" and leave an anonymous tip at 707-644-STOP (7867). Crime Stoppers may pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest.

NAMES OF VICTIMS IN TUESDAY'S TRIPLE SHOOTING RELEASED

Vacaville Police have released the names of the victims killed in Tuesday morning's triple shooting on William Street.

The two men found in the residence in the 500 block of William Street are:

Richard Marcham Perez, 20, of Vacaville

Cameron Scott Silva, 21, of Vacaville

The woman found in front of the residence when police arrived, suffering from gunshot wounds, is Sarah Jane Berkheimer, 21, of Vacaville.

Both Perez and Silva died at the scene from gunshot wounds. None of the victims lived at the residence where the incident took place.

The suspect arrested and named in previous press releases, S-Richard Ruben Calkins, remains in guarded custody at a hospital, and is being treated for head injuries.

UPDATE: NAME OF SUPECT IN DOUBLE-HOMICIDE RELEASED POLICE ARREST SUSPECT IN EARLY-MORNING DOUBLE HOMICIDE

Vacaville police have arrested a suspect in the shooting of three people that took place early Tuesday morning.

Police began receiving calls of shots fired in the 500 block of William Street at approximately 1:50 a.m. Upon arriving on the scene police found a woman suffering from gunshot wounds lying in front of the home. Upon entering the home, two more gunshot vicitims were discovered. Both were determined to be dead at the scene. The woman in front of the home was transported to a hospital and is expected to survive.

While police were at the scene reports of a male carrying a handgun in the 600 block of Merchant Street lead officers to the police department at 660 Merchant St. where they encountered an armed male adult in the lobby of the building. Police confronted the suspect on the stairs leading into the police lobby. The suspect, Richard Ruben Calkins, 18, of Vacaville was taken into custody.

This incident is still under investigation and police believe the Calkins may be responsible for the shooting on William Street. The names of the victims will released by the Coroner of Solano County. More press releases will be issued as information becomes available.

Anyone with information about the case should call (707) 449-5270.
