VACAVILLE POLICE INVESTIGATE AN ARMED ROBBERY IN THE WAL-MART PARKING LOT:

On November 23, 2010 at approximately 9:27 PM, officers responded to 1501 Helen Power Drive (Wal-Mart) in reference to an armed robbery that occurred in the parking lot. Officers arrived on scene and learned the adult victim is an employee at Wal-Mart and just completed her shift. The victim left the store and entered her vehicle when an unknown black male adult, wearing a ski mask, opened the back passenger door and sat inside. The black male then displayed a black handgun and demanded cash and jewelry. The victim complied and provided her immediate possessions.

The suspect then told the victim to drive him out of the area. The victim agreed and drove approximately 100 yards away from the store. Moments later, the suspect exited the victims' car and fled the scene. No injuries were reported or observed.

The suspect is described as a black male adult, 18-30 years old, small build, wearing all dark clothing. Officers are working with Wal-Mart security and reviewing the parking lot surveillance footage to develop additional leads.

The case remains under investigation and anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call Officer Novelli at 707-449-5200.
