Case Number: 10-08892
Location: 500 block of Crocker Drive
Suspects: S-Anthony Paul Oriarte, 50 years old, from Vallejo
S-David Troy Tobey, 39 years old, from Vallejo

Narrative:

On November 24, 2010 at 5:14 a.m., the Vacaville Police Department was notified of a theft in progress at a solar panel field in the area of the 500 block of Crocker Drive. Patrol officers responded and surrounded the solar panel field. S-Oriarte and S-Tobey were located in bushes near a hole in the fence around the solar panel field.

During an inspection of the solar panel field, damage to several boxes was discovered and several hundred feet of copper wire had been pulled and removed from the field. Evidence of the theft and the activity of the suspects was found on scene. The damage and loss to the solar panel field exceeds $10,000.

S-Oriarte had a methamphetamine pipe on his person and was found to be on active probation. S-Oriarte was arrested for Grand Theft, Conspiracy, Possession of Narcotic Paraphernalia, and Probation Violation.

S-Tobey was arrested for Grand Theft and Conspiracy. Both suspects were booked into the Solano County Jail.

Copper wire theft had become a prevalent crime. Anyone with information about any copper wire theft can contact the Vacaville Police Department Investigative Services Section at (707) 449-5200 or (707) 449-5286.
