Violation of Probation Possession of Pornography

Narrative:

On Wednesday, January 26, 2011, Detectives from the Family Investigative Response Services Team (F.I.R.S.T.) and officers from the Solano County Probation Department conducted fourteen (14) individual offender compliance checks throughout the city of Vacaville. The offenders were identified as being on probation for crimes related to domestic violence and sexual assault.

The Vacaville Police Department routinely coordinates and conducts probation and parole checks on offenders identified to be on active probation or parole. The compliance checks are conducted with the assistance of Solano County Probation and the California Department of Corrections.

During January's compliance check, S-Steven Fordyce, an individual on probation for possession of pornography, was arrested for violating terms of his probation. A total of seven (7) individuals were contacted for domestic violence probation compliance and seven (7) individuals for sex offender probation compliance.
