Narrative:

On May 5, 2011 at 9:59 p.m., a Vacaville Police Officer made an enforcement stop on a vehicle that made an illegal U-turn and stopped on the corner of Depot Street at Bush Street. As the Officer approached the car, the driver began to reach under the driver's seat frantically. S-Law was removed from the vehicle and a search revealed a loaded 9mm semi-automatic handgun under the driver's seat in the area he had been reaching. The driver was later identified as 38 year old Oakland resident S-Damian Law.

A further search of the vehicle turned up approximately one pound of methamphetamine, a digital scale, narcotic packaging material and cash that was seized as suspected drug proceeds. The estimated street value of the methamphetamine was approximately $15,000 dollars.

S-Law was currently out on bail for a felony crime. He was charged with possession of a controlled substance for sale, transportation of a controlled substance, possession of a firearm while committing a felony and committing a crime while out on bail. S-Law was booked into Solano County Jail.
